RECORDS AND INFORMATION MANAGEMENT CAN BE A CAREER OF CHOICE

The New Zealand Branch of the Records Management Association of Australasia (RMAA) is proud to announce the RMAA NZ Branch Scholarship for Records and Information Management Education. This is an annual award first launched in the 1st Semester of 2009.

The aim of the scholarship is to promote the study of records and information management in NZ through formal, specialist courses and to assist RMAA members to achieve educational qualifications required for professional membership.

The scholarship is a one-off payment of up to $2,000 to assist towards study, and will be paid to the institution at which the successful applicant is registered. It is open to any member of the New Zealand Branch of the RMAA (aged 16 or over) who is enrolled in study in the field of records and information management
